Taft T. Newman
Distinguished Service Award

Each year, as part of our “REFLECTIONS” celebration, ECF takes time out for the recognition of those individuals who have "stood out" over the course of the previous year as exemplary models of volunteer service. By conferring the Taft T. Newman Distinguished Service Award, we are saying, "Thank You" for your outstanding dedication and commitment to the vision of Ecclesia by serving the body of Christ and the Date Street community. We will celebrate REFLECTIONS on Sunday, May 19, 2024 at 10:30 in-person service.

Taft T. Newman was one of the founding members of Ecclesia. His quiet commitment to serve earned Taft the respect of all who knew him. Recipients of this award display that same humble commitment to serve the Lord and His people in the areas wherein they have been gifted for service.

Requirements for a TTNDSA nomination are:

- Nominees will be considered based on consistent “voluntary” service throughout the year of 2023
- A detailed narrative giving examples of servant qualities demonstrated
- Receipt of nominations by close of business on Monday, April 22
- To submit completed forms:
 - Bring or mail to the Admin Office
 - Fax to (909) 881-0199
 - Email information to info@ecclesiachurch.com

Employees of ECF and previous recipients of this award are not eligible. Consult the plaques in the center entryway of the church for previous recipients!
